High Five Kosmos!

By Jeff Merrill

It should have happened on May 5th, Cinco de Mayo.

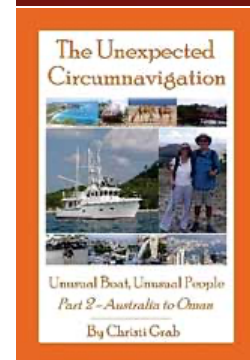

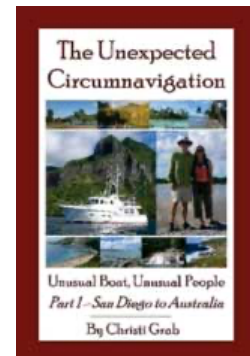

As it is, it did happen this month and it was captured on film - Kosmos - the only Nordhavn 43 to circumnavigate can now boast over five fives (cinco cinco's) on the hour meter.

This occurred on a day cruise in Mission Bay, CA - not far from home in San Diego.

Maybe it is a sign that you should order Christi's books on The Unexpected Circumnavigation - to celebrate?

Happy New Year Kosmos (gasp, could it be quintuplets?!)
